License to Publish

By signing this License to Publish Agreement, the undersigned author(s) ("Author") grant the Agriculture Association of Textile Chemical and Critical Reviews ("Publisher") the right to publish the above-mentioned article in AATCC Journal on an open access basis. This includes, but is not limited to, the abstract, full text, figures, tables, and any supplementary materials associated with the article.

The Author grants the Publisher a perpetual, worldwide, non-exclusive license to edit, format, adapt, translate, reproduce, publish, distribute, archive, and display the article in printed, electronic, and all other media formats now known or developed in the future.

The article will be published under the Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License (CC BY 4.0), which permits unrestricted use, distribution, and reproduction in any medium, including commercial use, provided that appropriate credit is given to the original author(s) and the Journal, a link to the license is provided, and any changes are clearly indicated.

1. Author Warranties and Declarations

The Author warrants and confirms that:

- The article is an original work, has not been previously published, and is not under consideration for publication elsewhere, except where a preprint has been deposited in an institutional or recognized preprint repository.
- All individuals who meet the criteria for authorship have been appropriately listed as co-authors, and no person's identity has been fabricated, falsified, or misappropriated.
- In the case of multiple authors, the corresponding author has obtained written consent from all co-authors to enter into this agreement on their behalf and will provide such documentation upon request.
- The article does not contain any material that is unlawful, defamatory, plagiarized, obscene, or that infringes upon any copyright, trademark, patent, privacy, or other proprietary rights of third parties.
- Where third-party copyrighted material (including figures, tables, photographs, or illustrations) is included, the Author has obtained all necessary permissions for reuse under the CC BY 4.0 license, or has clearly indicated any material that is excluded from the license.

- If the copyright of the article is owned or co-owned by an employer or other third party, the Author has obtained written authorization permitting publication under the CC BY 4.0 license.

2. Author Rights

The Author(s), or where applicable their employer(s), retain copyright ownership of the article. This agreement does not restrict the Author's rights to:

- Reuse the content for teaching, presentations, or future research
- Deposit the article in institutional or subject repositories
- Share the article on personal or professional websites
- Provided that the original publication in AATCC Journal is properly cited.

3. Copyright Notice

The Publisher will publish and distribute the article with an appropriate copyright notice and full bibliographic citation. All versions of the article distributed by the Publisher will clearly identify the final published version and the Journal as the original source.

4. Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License (CC BY 4.0)

The Author acknowledges and agrees that the article will be made freely available under the terms of the Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License, which allows users to copy, redistribute, remix, transform, and build upon the work for any purpose, including commercial use, provided that proper attribution is given and changes are indicated.

Author Confirmation and Signature

By signing below, the Author confirms that they have read, understood, and agreed to the terms of this License to Publish Agreement.
